

Cumberland Heights – Bartee Center Renovation

Project Description:

This project is included renovations to both the building and HVAC systems within the old school building. A dedication ceremony honoring the late John Bartee was held March 27, 2014. Mr. Bartee was a long-time extension agent in Montgomery County and his office was located within the building.

Design Team:

Powell Architecture

Total Project Cost:

$614,075

Contractor Team:

B.R. Miller & Company

Completion Date:

December 2013

Carolyn Bowers
County Mayor

Nick Powell, P.E.
County Engineer